

Green Jobs in Türkiye

Ebru Okutan, Green Economy Officer, ILO

okutan@ilo.org

Green Jobs in Türkiye: Milestones

- Türkiye's ratification of the Paris Agreement in 2021
- The Green Deal Action Plan 2021
- The First Climate Council Experience of Türkiye

«Going green could create 300,000 new jobs for the Turkish economy by 2030»

ILO Office for Türkiye

- ILO-UNDP Joint Initiative: « Social and Employment Impacts of Climate Change and Green Economy Policies in Türkiye »
- «Garbaging Towards a Just Transition: Work, Labour, and Value in the Informal Recycling Chain»

Supporting Resilience and Social Cohesion with Decent Livelihood Opportunities Project

Meryem Women Cooperative

- 350 beneficiaries
- Agreement between the Meryem Women's Cooperative and Migros & Groseri (major chain supermarket with branches in every province of Turkey)

Maryam Papoulzi, Afghan, Agricultural Worker
Meryem Women's Cooperative, Adana, 10 February 2021

«Once I started working at Meryem Women's Cooperative, I learned many things on various subjects. I learned how to work a field myself, how to harvest. This place was built by an engineer among us.»

 International Labour Organization

▶ «My mother has been working for a month at Meryem Women's Cooperative, and I have just started. We must be strong as mom and daughter, because life goes on.»

Mona Mohamdi, Iranian
Works at mask manufacturing
Meryem Women's Cooperative, Adana, 10 February 2021

▶ #SocialJustice

 International Labour Organization

▶ «I am an Iranian. I studied literature in Iran. My daughter and I have been living in Turkey for 3 years. The pandemic made our lives even more difficult. We had difficulty in finding jobs. I have been working at Meryem Women's Cooperative for a month.»

Sohyla Osmanpoor, Iranian
Works at mask manufacturing
Meryem Women's Cooperative, Adana, 10 February 2021

▶ #DecentWorkforAll

Thank you.